Board of Education Goes on Record Against Housing Troops at Inauguration.

EVANS CASE UP AGAIN

Teachers and Principals to Atten Association Meeting in Philadelphia in February.

Failing in line with the House Com-mittee on Appropriations, which on Tressday cited a "rider" in an old act that will prevent the school buildings being used for the lodging of milita dur-ing the inaugural, the Board of Educating the inaugurat, the pours of Lauce-tion yesterday adopted a resolution ex-pressive of its disapproval of turning the school buildings of the District to any such purpose. The resolution was intro-duced by John R. Larner, and the only opposition offered came from R. R. Vorner.

The Evans specter raised its head again for a moment, but was quickly quieted. A letter was read from Prof. W. B. Evans, formerly principal of the Armstrong Manual Training School and director of the colored night schools, who was dismissed about a month ago on charges of uncompetency. Prof. Evans retierated bis request ever a hearing on his case. Mrs. Caroline W. Harris and R. B. Horfer, two of the colored members of the board, championed his cause, and argued that the request should be granted. They were voted down, however.
